Dear Respondent,

You are invited to participate in a survey about your approach to shopping for clothes. You are invited to answer how much do eco-projects, undertaken by fashion companies, affect your choice of clothing, does company's accreditation affect your shopping habits and what are your preferences while buying products.

Please read this sheet carefully and be confident that you understand its contents before deciding whether to participate.

Why have you been approached?

You have been perceived as an individual, who is interested in more eco-friendly, ethical approach to shopping.

If I agree to participate, what will I be required to do?

Answer a group of questions, provided to you in a form of a survey.

What are the possible risks or disadvantages?

This survey might take 10-20 minutes out of your day.

What are the benefits associated with participation?

With answering this survey you will possibly become one of the individuals improving the way society perceives shopping today and altering overall approach to conscious shopping.

What will happen to the information I provide?

This information will be used within the bounds of the MA research project.

What are my rights as a participant?

- The right to withdraw from participation at any time
- The right to request that any recording cease
- The right to have any data withdrawn and destroyed, provided it can be reliably identified, and provided that so doing does not increase the risk for the participant.
- The right to be de-identified in any photographs intended for public publication, before the point of publication
- The right to have any questions answered at any time.

Whom should I contact if I have any questions or want to withdraw my consent?
